My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee,
Hosea 4:6

I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

CHOOSE WISELY

This day I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live. ~Deuteronomy 30:19

The Resurrection

Anyone who has ever thought that the Resurrection of Jesus validates the Christian message should see who else in history claimed the same.

-Mithra
-Marduk
-Tammuz
-Adonis
-Osiris
-Attis
-Apollonius

You not only walked in their ways and copied their detestable practices, but in all your ways you soon became more depraved than they.
Ezekiel 16:47

Can you honestly blame Jews for not accepting Christianity? Today you can shun idolatry and decide to become a full Jew yourself through conversion!

The Crucifixion

The cross is a pagan symbol that was adopted in Egypt thousands of years before Jesus was even born.

Take a look at who else was also crucified. Could it have been a coincidence?

-Crucifixion of the Hindoos Saktia, 600 B.C.
-Crucifixion of Christna of India, 1200 B.C.
-Tammuz of Syria Crucified, 1100 B.C.

The Trinity

The doctrine of the Trinity does not have its basis in the Hebrew Scriptures but is actually rooted in paganism. Many cultures predating Christianity had Trinities of their own. Such as:

The Indian Trinity of Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva
The Babylonian Trinity of Nimrod Samaria and Tammuz
The Egyptian Trinity of Isis Osiris and Horus
The Zoroastrian Trinity also known as the Ahura
The Greek Trinity of Zeus, Hera and Athena
The Roman Trinity Jupiter Mars Venus

The concept of the trinity may have been new to you, but the Jews who rejected Christianity were well aware of the religions of their neighbors and thus used this as a stepping stone to reject what became Christianity.

Krishna was born of the virgin Devaki, as were the Egyptian Horus and Osiris. The goddess Hertha was a virgin impregnated by the heavenly Spirit. Frigg the Scandinavian was impregnated by the All-Father Odin and bore Balder, the healer and savior of mankind.

Mithras was also born in a cave, on December 25th, of a virgin mother. He came from heaven to be born as a man, to redeem men from their sin. He was known as “Savior,” “Son of God,” “Redeemer,” and “Lamb of God.” With twelve disciples he traveled far and wide as a teacher and illuminator of men. He was buried in a tomb from which he rose again from the dead — an event celebrated yearly with much rejoicing. His followers would hold sacramental feasts in remembrance of him.

The sacred meal of bread and water, or bread and wine, was symbolic of the body and blood of the sacred bull.

The Babylonian god Tammuz was also said to be born on Dec 25th along with Horus Buddha Quetzalcoatl Hercules etc...

The 7 Laws of Noah

1. Not to deny God.
2. Not to blaspheme God.
3. Not to murder.
4. Not to engage in sexual immorality.
5. Not to steal.
6. Not to eat a limb torn from a living animal.
7. To set up courts of justice.

These are just the outlines however, and there is a need to study their details in order to live practically. Also, you can choose to do more in addition to this, and are always welcome to sample what Judaism has to offer.

Consider Judaism

Judaism was the first belief system that cried out that man does not have to live like animals, there finally is a standard.

Monotheistic Religions

The first belief system to make the claim the human life is sacred because we were created in the image of the creator.

The Virgin Birth

The Christian doctrine of a virgin birth is derived from the verse in Isaiah 7:14 describing an “almighty” having a child. The word “almighty” has always meant a young woman in Hebrew, but Christian theologians came centuries later and translated the word as “virgin.” The Hebrew word for virgin is “Baalat” not “Alma” which actually mean young woman. This lump's Jesus birth with the first century pagan idea of mortals being impregnated by gods.

- Mutemwa, the virgin Queen of Egypt, gave birth to the Pharaoh Amenosept (or Amonosept) in 390 BC.
- Apis, the sacred bull of Memphis, was begetten by a deity descending as a ray of moonlight on the cow which was to become the mother of the sacred beast; hence he was regarded as the son of the god.
- Egyptian god, Ra (the Sun), was born of a virgin mother, Nut (or Neith).
- Gogemese, the Grecian God, was said to be the miraculously begotten son of Zeus out of the mortal woman Semene.
- Jason was born of the virgin Persephone.
- Hercules was said to be born of a virgin.
- Perseus was also said to have been born of a virgin.
- Quirinus was said to be born virgin.
- Mahdia, the Persian was also.
- Budden fellowers claimed that he was virgin born.
- Attis, the Phrygian god, was also said to be virgin born.

The Messiah (Christ)

Why Don’t Jews Believe Jesus was the promised Messiah?

Well, bluntly because he:

- Was not a great judge, who makes righteous decisions (Jeremiah 33:15).
- Was not a great political leader descended from King David (Jeremiah 23:5).
- Did not bring about the political and spiritual redemption of the Jewish people (Isaiah 11:11-12; Jeremiah 23:8; 30:3; Hosea 3:4-5).
- Did not establish a government in Israel (Isaiah 2:2-4; 11:10; 42:1).
- He did not influence the entire world to acknowledge and serve one G-d (Isaiah 11:9, Isaiah 40:5; Zephaniah 3:9).
- Did not bring world peace (Isaiah 2:4; 11:16; Micah 4:3).

All of these criteria for the Messiah are best stated in the book of Ezekiel chapter 37:24-28. “And he said to me, ‘This is my covenant with them, that of peace with them, when I make with them an everlasting covenant. And I will fill the heathen with them for my servants and my holy name... And the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, when I have hallowed thee...’”

Ezekiel 37:17-28

Jesus, God?

Throughout the Jewish scriptures, God never “screened or veiled his divine nature.” In fact, Isaiah unequivocally proclaimed that the Almighty did not reveal himself in darkness or in a hidden or veiled fashion. —Isaiah 45:19

I will not carry out my fierce anger, nor will I turn and devastated Ephraim. For I am God, and not man — the Holy One among you. I will not cause wrath, —Hosea 11:9

Do not rely on princes nor on the son of man, for he holds no salvation. —Psalm 146:3

Seek now that I myself am He! There is no god besides Me. —Deuteronomy 32:39

God is not a man, that he should lie, nor a son of man, that he should change his mind. Does he speak and not act? —Numbers 23:19

The first of the Ten Commandments

I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt, and of the land of slavery. You shall have no other gods before Me. —Exodus 20:3

See, now, that I, the Lord, am He — and no god is with Me —Deuteronomy 32:38

For will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee, how much less this house that I have builded! —I Kings 8:27

“The almighty” declares the Lord, “and My servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe Me and understand that I am He, before Me no god was formed, nor will there be one after Me. I, even I, am the Lord, and besides me there is no Saviour.” —Isaiah 43:10-11

The Lamb

In Pharaoh’s Egypt the lamb was a sacred god, and killing a Lamb was even a capital offense. That is why Moses refused pharaoh’s request for the Jews to bring their sacrifices to God in Egypt. In Exodus 9:26, Moses explained to Pharaoh that if the Egyptians were to kill Lambs before the Egyptians they would be stoned to death. G-d in his greatness, used this as an opportunity to hail the faith of the Hebrew people by commanding them to make a public spectacle of the god that Egyptians held dear by slaughtering it and more than just slaughtering it but also smeering its blood on the door for all to see.

The Torah never states anywhere that the Passover lamb alone was for sin. So really the idea of Jesus being the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world is not Jewish one.
